OCS was founded in 1957 and cooperated with such major newspaper publisher as ASAHI, NIKKEI, MAINICHI and YOMIURI to deliver Japanese newspapers to subscribers living abroad.

The experience reaped by the long experience in the handling of newspapers where speed, reliability and economy are of paramount importance and has become the pillar of support for the entire OCS delivery system. Trading firms, financial institutions and manufacturers are active in all parts of the world. The volume of business papers and documents that pile up during the course of conducting business by these international enterprises must reach enormous proportions. It is here Overseas Courier Service come in, OCS expertly handles these mountains of business materials, printed matters, etc.

Day by day OCS evolved and adopted the network to the movement of all types of business materials, from small documents to software media to hardware systems to commodities in weights from just a few kilos to tons. Internally heavy weight service we are calling "Sumo". With over 45 years of express operations, OCS has been serving major business centres of the world longer than anyone in the business.

Today OCS covers the world through its rapidly growing network of offices in over 210 countries. Wherever your documents or packages are in the world, OCS sophisticated computerised tracking system knows where they are every step of the way.

The first shipments were imported to India in 1968 through OCS India. OCS India is handling all import and export shipments and possesses well trained and fully qualified staff, which can and does meet even the most demanding customer's requirements. The high standard of services being granted by OCS India personnel gave us the privilege to be among the OCS Overseas Courier Service network. For a single price, you can arrange express, international and safe door-to-door service.
